FINANCIAL SECRETARIAT

Dated 2nd June 1949.

No. FI. 10678-762—G.F. 188-48-2. Government in their Order No. FI. 5113-5173—G.F. 252-43-2, dated 28th April 1944, directed the Comptroller and Other Heads of Departments to grant extracts of entries from the Service Registers of their employees for bonafide purposes of reference, subject to the levy of a fee of eight annas for each extract. This was intended mostly for purposes of insurance.

2 It has come to the notice of Government that there is inordinate delay in issuing the extracts from the Service Registers both to the Insured Officials and Agents, thereby causing inconvenience to the Government Insurance Department and also depriving the officials of the insurance cover due to delay in the completion of insurance proposals.

3 The Heads of Departments and Officers are requested to see that the required extract from the Service Register is issued within a month at the latest from the date of presentation of the Treasury receipt for the fee of eight annas.
